Artemis Woman's New Gemstone Facial Center Brings Teens all the Luxury Of a Pampering Spa Experience at Teen-friendly Prices

(Weston, CT) Teens looking for a fun and inexpensive way to enjoy a high quality and luxurious spa facial treatment can now turn to the Healing Gems™ Professional Facial Center by Artemis Woman, LLC. This complete home facial system allows these young women to pamper themselves in a fun and easy way without a hefty price tag. It is never too early for teens to start taking excellent care of their skin, and early care is the key to healthy, young looking skin later in life. Many teens are using harsh products with strong chemicals that do more harm than good. The Professional Facial Center provides a fun and natural solution; no trip to the Spa necessary.

An all-in-one system, the Professional Facial Center contains everything teens need to relax and pamper themselves with a soothing spa facial treatment in their own homes. After a gentle rinsing with a favorite cleanser, the steam nozzle releases a relaxing vapor that opens the pores and soothes the senses. Next, the facial exfoliator, with either the sponge or brush attachment, combined with a Gemstone Facial Scrub, gently and effectively buffs away dead skin cells, revealing glowing and rejuvenated skin. The pore-cleansing device removes impurities from the cheeks, chin, forehead, and nose. Finally, a soothing warm mud mask completes the luxurious spa experience.

The Facial Center is the newest addition to Artemis Woman's Healing Gems™ line, which incorporates the healing powers of gemstones and aromatherapy oils into a variety of at-home spa and skincare products, such as facial scrubs, body polishes, hand crèmes, foot butters, and microdermabrasion kits. With the introduction of an at-home system, teens who may be longing for a facial from a luxurious Spa can now enjoy high quality facials in their own homes, without the steep price.

For centuries, most Western Civilizations have valued gemstones for their aesthetic appeal, but now gemstones are gaining recognition for their therapeutic powers and their ability to enhance beauty from the inside out. Gem therapy treatments burst onto the wellness scene in 2004 and have been covered in the Style Section of The New York Times and Spa Magazine Worldwide Guide of 2004. The Healing Gems™ Professional Facial Center includes a Gemstone Facial Scrub to exfoliate and balance the skin and Artemis Woman is the only company to offer facial scrubs with real gemstones and incorporate them into an entire skincare line. With the Professional Facial Center and Gemstone Facial Scrubs, teens can now enjoy the hot new trend of gem therapy in their own homes without having to shell out all of their precious spending money. Instead of paying $100.00 dollars for one facial from a spa, teens can enjoy several facials using the Artemis Woman Professional Facial Center for under $100.00.

Throughout history, the therapeutic powers of gemstones have been utilized by the world's most advanced civilizations. The Egyptians, Babylonians, Greeks, Romans, Aztecs, Mayans, Hebrews, and Chinese employed certain gems to solve spiritual and physical imbalances and restore harmony to their lives. Artemis Woman has taken five gemstones, Amethyst for Spirit, Clear Quartz for Energy, Rose Quartz for Sensual, Topaz for Power, and Tourmaline for Balance, each chosen because of their specific healing powers, and combined them with natural ingredients and aromatherapy oils to create the Gemstone Facial Scrubs. Depending on their mood, teenagers can choose which Healing Gems™ Gemstone Facial Scrub to include with the Facial Center in order to personalize their treatment.

The Professional Facial Center is now available exclusively at select Bed Bath & Beyond locations across the country, as well as online through Artemis Woman's website. The Healing Gems Facial Scrubs are also available for purchase at all Ultra cosmetic stores and online through Amazon.com, in addition to the Artemis Woman website.
